ZEPPELIN ON SECOND U. S. FLIGHT

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany, May 6.—UP—The giant dirigible Graf Zeppelin left here in the early light of dawn today on its projected flight to America.

The silver airship, which is the largest flying craft ever built, started its second trip to Lakehurst, N. J., at 5:54 a. m. (1:54 p. m. Eastern standard time). Under favorable conditions it is scheduled to reach its destination some time Sunday.

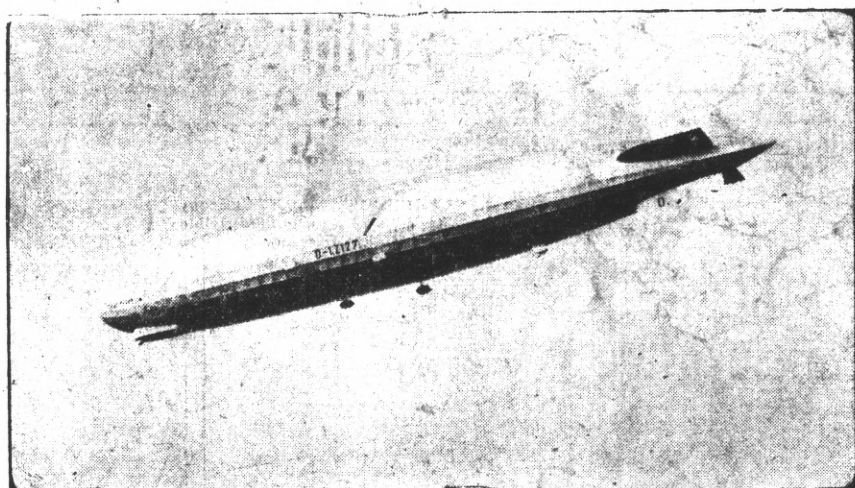

There were 8 aboard as passengers on the 5000 mile trip.

Crew Of 41

The dirigible crew numbered 41 under command of Dr. Hugo Eckener. A "flapper" gorilla named Susy, also was aboard the ship, in a cage.

Weather conditions were excellent for the departure according to officials of the Zeppelin works who predicted that the dirigible should arrive at its destination about 9 a. m. Eastern (Continued on Page 8)

Off On Long Flight

WESTWARD BOUND, the Graf Zeppelin left its base at Friedrichshafen, Germany this morning for its second flight to the United States. Clear weather over Europe has been forecast. Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander, stated that he believes the trip will be made in record time.

PARR BACK FROM EAST

Fred D. Parr, president of the Parr-Richmond Terminal corporation, returned yesterday after spending three weeks in the east where he visited 15 cities and interviewed 40 business leaders as well as government officials in the interest of Richmond industrial and harbor development.

Parr was reluctant to discuss the industries with which he is negotiating for Richmond sites but said that he had several prospects which showed a great deal of interest.

As a special representative of the chamber of commerce, Parr visited the War Department and discussed harbor development and the proposed Army air base on the Pacific coast. F. Trubee Davidson, assistant secretary of war in charge of aviation is now in the bay region and is believed to have flown over Richmond yesterday in an army plane inspecting proposed sites. He has refused to reveal his exact movements but indicated several days ago that he would visit the Richmond site during his visit here.

Parr also discussed the various harbor projects which have been under consideration for some time, with engineers in Washington. Indication that favorable action would be taken on the "bug" in the harbor measure and the dredging of Cutting canal was given several months ago by War Department officials.

A complete report of his accomplishments while in the east will be given to the industrial committee next Wednesday morning.

House Thief Getting Real Competition

Editor, Record-Herald, Richmond, Calif.

Dear Sir:
Richmond not only has a building thief but has a furnished house thief. When they change the shades of windows, steal the curtains, and the electric light globes and many other articles too numerous to mention, it is time to do something.

I have made up my mind to catch the thief, and when I do get them they will surely know it, for I will send them to San Quentin.

POWER FIRM ACCUSED IN PAPER PROBE

WASHINGTON, May 15.—UP—Disclosure that the International Paper and Power company had offered to finance purchase of more than a score of the country's leading newspapers was made today in testimony by two prominent newspaper publishers before the federal trade commission.

The publishers, S. E. Thompson, Chicago, and Frank E. Gannett, Rochester, N. Y., corroborated previous testimony by A. R. Graustein, president of the I. P. & P., revealing they had received some financial aid from the power company. In each case, the publishers said, Graustein approached them with offers to advance money to finance newspaper properties in return for newspaper contracts.

Testimony by Thompson and correspondence between himself and the power company put in the record showed he attempted to buy many of the nation's most prominent newspapers with the power company's aid. He said, however, the power company gave him no assurance it would finance more than two papers in addition to the three he now owns and in which the power company has an interest aggregating $1,630,000. These three are the Chicago Journal, Tampa, Fla. Tribune, and Greensboro Record.

In the case of Gannett, the power company advanced him a total of $2,781,198.30 for which it received an interest in four of his papers, and offered to aid him in buying any additional papers. Gannett recently repaid to the power company all sums it advanced him and that concern now has no interest in his properties.

YOUTH TAKEN AFTER WILD CHASE

Apprehended after a chase by police, in which several shots were fired a 15 year old junior high school boy is being held by the Richmond police for the robbery of a number of Richmond homes here in the last two weeks.

According to police reports the lad admitted breaking into six homes and taking loot valued at about $50. He declared, according to police that he didn't "remember" other homes he had ransacked.

The boy's arrest followed the ransacking of the home of Harry Bagley, 2800 Clinton avenue at about 10 o'clock last night. A few minutes prior to this time John Masfeli, 610 Third-st., notified police that his home had been ransacked but nothing had been taken. As a result, police patrolling the neighborhood were extremely vigilant.

At a few minutes past ten o'clock, Patrolman M. H. Salisbury, patrolling the district in a machine, noticed a bicycle in front of the Bagley home. He crept the back and when he reached the house he heard the sounds of some one running.

A boy dashed from the house and started running across lots, Salisbury got out of his machine and gave chase. For ten minutes (Continued on Page 8)

"It wasn't anything," Burg declared last night, "I just jumped in and pulled him out—that's all there was to it."

Cost Of Government In County Increases

The cost of government, for Contra Costa county in 1918 was $1,139,880. In 1927 it has risen to $3,923,561. This was an increase of $2,783,681 for the ten year period, according to Thomas G. LeBlanc, field representative and organizer for California Taxpayers' association. LeBlanc says that these figures were compiled by the research department of the state association at Los Angeles.

Basing the estimate of population of the county on the average daily attendance of children in the elementary schools, the association's statistics show that the population of Contra Costa county in 1918 was 48,100 and that in 1928 it was 74,000, an increase for the ten year period of 26,000 persons. The assessed valuation of taxable property in the county in 1918 was $54,918,815. The assessed valuation for 1928 reached $95,299,600 or an increase of $41,280,785 in the ten year period.

The outstanding bonded indebtedness of the county and its districts in 1918 was $886,300. In 1927 it was $3,861,186. This was an increase of $4,975,186 during that period.

Mackinnon Case To Be Decided May 28

MARTINEZ, May 15.—Rumors that the county grand jury will vote on the question of indicting Justice of the Peace A. H. Mackinnon on a charge of driving while drunk were current here today. A session of the jury has been set for May 28.

Following an all day session yesterday, during which Mackinnon was afforded an opportunity to appear and testify and present several witnesses in his defense, the jury adjourned with a call being issued for another session in two weeks.

If Mackinnon is indicted by the jury, charges pending against him in the court of Justice of the Peace Frank Glass will be dismissed, obviating a preliminary hearing and causing him to be taken into the superior court for immediate trial.

There was no official indication of the nature of the testimony given by witnesses yesterday although it is understood that Dr. J. H. Van Tassel of Oakland, Mackinnon's physician, declared that he had treated the judge for high blood pressure and that he fell into a weakened physical condition from strain and over exertion.

Mackinnon has stood adamant to suggestions that he resign his office and he has declared that he will fight prosecution of the drunken driving complaint.

2130 Students Given California Degrees

BERKELEY, May 15.—Graduation exercises for 2130 students of the University of California were held here today in the memorial stadium. This was the sixty-sixth annual commencement of the school.

More than 10,000 friends and relatives of the graduating students lined the southern end of the stadium to watch the ceremonies, which proceeded under a cloudy, gray sky.

All traditions were shattered at today's exercises. The contest between two co-ed members of the graduating class for honors as the "most distinguished" student to conclude undergraduate work, proved so close that regents of the University voted to award two gold medals for the first time in the history of the school.

Two castaway girls, who made "A's" in 19 subjects were given the medals. They were Miss Dorothy May Paschall, of Berkeley and Miss Elizabeth Stevenson of Piedmont.

All diplomas were personally presented to each of the 2130 students by President W. W. Campbell, who conducted the exercises from an improvised stage at the southern end of the stadium.

Special honors were awarded to 21 students from Richmond and vicinity at the exercises today.

Concrete piles to guard bridge piers

MARTINEZ, May 15.—Driving of concrete piles about the central piers of the Carquinez bridge of the American Toll Bridge company to complete the protective fender system was started today by the Duncanson-Hartel company of San Francisco.

More than $325,000 will be expended on this feature of the system that is to protect the span supports against possible damage by ship collision.

Start of sinking of the concrete piling follows the completion of placing rock bulkhead about the piers, which required months of labor, the rock being dumped from barges through a funnel shaped instrument.

More than 480 concrete piles, ranging in length from 90 to 120 feet, will be required to complete the bulkhead about the piers.

Heaviest type of pile driven will be used in driving the concrete piles to a solid foundation in the straits. The work is expected to require several months.

JAMES MONROE WAS MORE THAN STATESMAN

James Monroe, who was personally one of the most popular presidents who ever sat in the White House, is known principally for his authorship of the noted doctrine which bears his name. Mr. Monroe however was more than a statesman. He was a soldier, explorer, lawmaker and diplomat as well. In describing his versatile career in the current issue of the National Republic, Mr. H. O. B'shop says:

The Monroe Doctrine is known and well understood throughout the world. It is a famous "no trespassing" sign that has been obeyed for more than a century.

"The author of that world-famed 'keep off' admonition, however, is not as well known to the public generally as he is thought to be. He was a remarkably interesting and versatile man. In addition to his services of eight years as president of the United States, Mr. Monroe was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, a member of the Continental congress, western explorer, U. S. senator from Virginia, governor of Virginia, member of the Virginia legislature, minister to France, minister to England, minister to Spain, Secretary of State and War at the same time, lawyer, farmer and justice of the peace.

"Last month marked the anniversary of his birth. He was born in Westmoreland county in the Rappahannock Valley, Virginia, April 28, 1758—171 years ago. He was descended from old Scotch cavaliers. Both his father and mother were born in Virginia. His father was Spence Monroe, a farmer. His mother, Elizabeth Jones, was a sister of Joseph Jones, twice elected to the Continental Congress.

"Monroe's father and Richard Henry Lee, together with other men of the community, took a determined stand against Britain's Stamp act.

"Shortly before the outbreak of the Revolution, young Monroe became a student at William and Mary College, located about a dozen miles from historic Jamestown. Williamsburg was then the seat of government of the colony of Virginia. One of his college mates was John Marshall, subsequently Chief Justice of the United States.

"In '76, at the age of 18, Monroe joined Washington's army near New York as a lieutenant of a Virginia regiment under Gen. Hugh Mercer, personal friend of Washington and for years previously proprietor of an apothecary shop at Fredericksburg, where also lived Washington's mother and sister. He was with the patriot troops at Harlem, Germantown and Monmouth. At the Battle of Trenton he received a wound in the shoulder. It should be borne in mind that Monroe was one of the troopers who crossed the Delaware with Washington on that cold and stormy Christmas night.

Washington fully appreciated Monroe's qualities as a soldier and tried to have him promoted.

"Virginia, however, did nothing in the way of military promotion for this illustrious son. He should have been made a general. His lack of promotion hurt him deeply. He thought some of taking up diplomatic work in Europe, but was finally persuaded to study law under Thomas Jefferson."

FILM COLONY TAX EXPERT INDICTED

LOS ANGELES, May 15.—UP—J. Marjorie Berger, the movie colony income tax expert, was indicted by the federal grand jury for the fifth time today for asserted falsification of a film star's government tax return.

Regardless of Price

Government figures show the gain of Lucky Strike to be greater than the combined increase of all other cigarettes. The public will be served and this is proof, indeed, that regardless of price, you actually get more in Lucky Strike than any other cigarette can offer. Its perfect blend of fine tobaccos gives pure smoking delight. Its exclusive, secret toasting process guarantees the tobaccos free from irritants and impurities and, in the opinion of 20,679* physicians, makes Lucky Strike less irritating than other cigarettes.

IN YOUR OWN BACK YARD

THE LONGEST WAY 'ROUND IS THE SHORTEST WAY HOME—at least that is what they say in the song. BUT THE SHORTEST WAY TO THE SHOPS is the CHEAPEST WAY TO GET WHAT YOU WANT. That's Actual, Practical and Logical. Why go miles out of your way to buy what you can better buy in your HOME TOWN? The merchants of RICHMOND have QUALITY, QUANTITY, VARIETY AND PRICE.

The old superstition that housewives need to go out of town to get their needs is past. Now WISE men and women know that they can secure everything that they could possibly need right here in our thriving, progressive city.

Our merchants offer you the pick of the world's market at a price that is in many instances less than you would have to pay for it in some other city.

Then, too, your merchant in RICHMOND is friendly toward you and your family. He is interested in your welfare—your health, your progress. His money is spent right here in town to build better schools, better playgrounds—he is interested in and is supporting all civic improvements. Your interest is his interest. He knows your needs and does his utmost to supply them with the least possible cost to you.

Without merchants there could be no city, no progress, no conveniences—in short, Richmond would be a big ranch without those beautiful stores that grace our streets.

BUT REMEMBER, the merchants need your support; the city needs your support. When you spend a dollar right here in Richmond it stays here to do your city some good—perhaps that same dollar may find its way back into your own purse.

That same dollar spent in some other city never comes back. It is gone forever—you will never see it again. Fifty thousand dollars spent that way means fifty thousand dollars that might have helped prosperity right here in RICHMOND. This is not idle talk but plain facts. Confine your purchasing in the city that supports you and the city in turn will pay you big dividends.

The professional man is entitled to your loyal support. He, like the merchant, is supporting all civic organization—he is liberal in supporting merited charity, he is active in helping RICHMOND GROW. Remember, too, that he is just as skilled as anyone in his profession regardless of where you may seek.

RICHMOND is no longer a village. There are men and women here that could carve their names on FAME'S PAGES in the largest cities of the world. There is always that personal touch that goes with their service—money is not the chief asset with our HONEST BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL PEOPLE.

This is written for the few who have not realized how much there is to be gained by doing your shopping at home. Most of our citizens—in fact, the majority of them know the values to be had here and are loyal.

High Nine To Meet Alumni Team Today

The Richmond Union high school baseball team will face the alumni squad here this afternoon at the San Pablo ball diamond at four o'clock.

Some of the outstanding stars of teams that have gone down in history at the local school, will be on hand to lend their stick power to the alumni team.

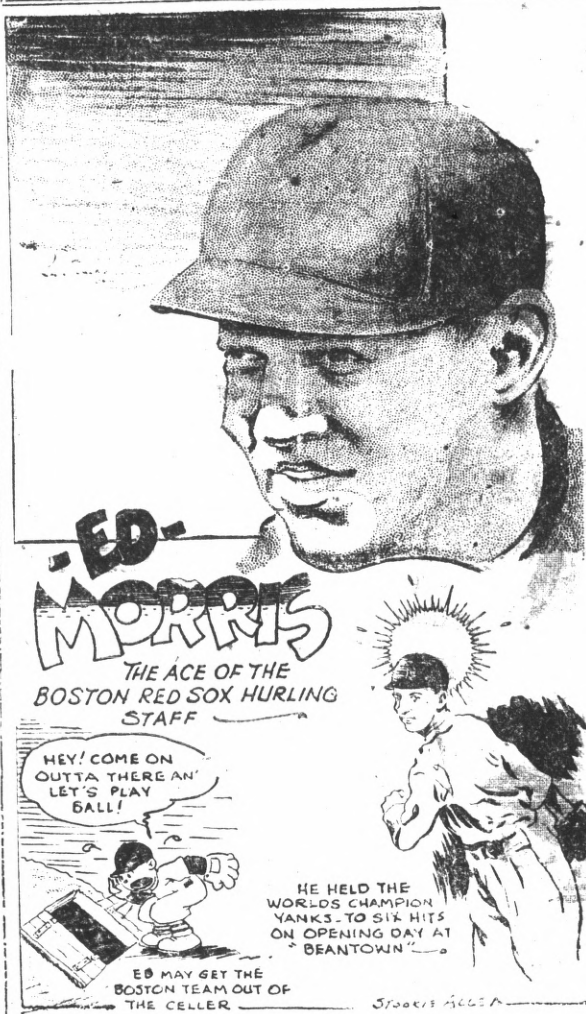

Jack Pinto is scheduled to pitch for the alumni and Kenny Swenson will play the man in the iron mask. Ridge Greathouse will be on the Keystone sack and Gidge Cornell will hold down second. Johnny Huzefka is slated to hand short stop and Ernie Barbieri may be at third. Dick Paasch and Charlie Baldwin will be in the outfield.

The game is expected to draw one of the largest crowds that has ever witnessed a high school ball game here.

Coach Ivan W. Hill stated last night that he will use his regular lineup for the varsity squad.

Owners of open cars who store the curtains away for the summer should clean and dry them thoroughly. Wrap each curtain in paper, placing the paper between each piece of flannel to avoid damage by chafing.

STAFF

HEY! COME ON OUTTA THERE AN' LET'S PLAY BALL!

HE HELD THE WORLD'S CHAMPION YANKS TO SIX HITS ON OPENING DAY AT "BEANTOWN"

One of the toughest hurlers in the circuit, Ed Morris of the Boston Red Sox, pitched for them all lock alike to large Edward.

On opening day in "Beantown" he pitched out a department of curves and fastballs that had the world's champion Yanks in a terrific hole in the atmosphere. A total of 16 hits were allowed, but Morris and three of these went to "Beantown" Dugan, one of the weakest hitters on the team, just to name a few. Morris stepped out a few days later and held the home team, Athletics, to four measly bingles and shut them out.

S. O. TENNIS PLAY TO START

Entries in the contest will close May 23 and play will start on the Saturday following. The championship matches are expected to close on or after June 15.

L. S. Fish is holder of the trophy at the present time, having won the cup twice. Should he repeat his victories this year he will gain possession of the cup.

Some of the best known players in Richmond are preparing to enter the matches.

Plans for the annual circus to be held May 31 were discussed last night in the Y. M. C. A. by the members of the Young Men's Division. Classes for women will be held from 2:30 to 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon; boys' classes will be held from 3:45 to 4:30 and girls will be taught from 4:30 to five o'clock.

England Finds Fencing Trophy Lost For Years

LONDON, May 15.—UP—The "Horatio Gurratti" cup, presented by British fencers as a prize for the winning team in the Olympic open contest, is now the perpetual trophy for the series of international fencing matches between England and Scotland.

By some misunderstanding which is not explained the cup was never presented at the Olympic Games, and after wandering around Europe it was eventually found residing in the Lausanne Museum by the late Sir Theodore Cook, who restored it to the Amateur Fencing association. The trophy has been re-christened the "King Edward VIII" and is expected to create greater enthusiasm in the annual Anglo-Scottish duels.

OAKS LOSE TO SACRAMENTO NINE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—(UP)—The Los Angeles Angels again became the most formidable foe of the San Francisco Missions in the race for the Pacific Coast pennant.

The Angels retrieved second place of the circuit by beating the San Francisco Seals, 4 to 2, but they did not lessen the breach of seven full games between them and the Missions.

Apparently angered by the first defeat in 12 games which they suffered Tuesday, the Missions trounced Hollywood 15 to 5. The Bells started out with nine runs in the first three innings and coasted in. The Angels also stored up an early lead and held the Seals scoreless until the ninth inning.

Oakland, which had been tied with the Angels, slipped down the ladder when Sacramento beat the Oaks 5 to 2.

After spotting Seattle five runs in the first inning, Portland's Beavers scored four times in the next two innings and had a three run rally in the first of the ninth to beat the Indians, 7 to 6.

CHRONIC CASE OF SORE LEG; LIMB TURNED BLACK; AMPUTATION FORESTALL-ED BY FONG WAN

July 10, 1928.
To Whom It May Concern:
Oakland, Cal.
About 15 years ago I underwent an operation that left my leg in an ulcerated condition from which I suffered a great deal. I treated with many healers but got no relief. One wanted to amputate the leg; another wanted to amputate it.

About two and one-half years ago my leg turned black and I was not able to wear a shoe. A friend told me about Fong Wan, so I consulted him. After following his instructions as to diet and taking the herbs that he compounded now after eleven months my leg is in normal condition, and I am in perfect health.

MRS. MARY RUTH, 66 Monte Vista ave., Oakland, Cal.

People who wish to learn more about Fong Wan's knowledge of herbs and methods of healing should get his new book free at his office or mailed to any address upon receipt of 10c postage.

102 KILLED IN HOSPITAL BLAST

Coroner A. J. Pearce, spent the night preparing for the inquest which is expected to start sometime today.

City Manager W. R. Hopkins announced he would appoint a commission of three to thoroughly probe the affair.

Finds Wife Dead
Dr. Carl Helwig, responded to a call for medical aid at Mount Sinai hospital where more than a hundred of the victims were taken.

He bent over a cot to administer aid to one of the first victims brought in.

It was his wife, she was dead. Mrs. Helwig was technician at the Cleveland Clinic hospital.

Hero Loses Life
Patrolman Ernest Staab, lost his life in the performance of his duty. Death came to him after he had saved the lives of more than five persons.

He was one of the first men to run into the burning hospital. The first time he carried out a man near death. A pulmonator revived the man and he is expected to live.

Again and again Patrolman Staab braved the deadly fumes to carry on the rescue work. He drove a police car into the back yard of a hospital helped carry in the victims and then collapsed. He died several hours later.

Witness Tells of Blast
F. B. Conklin, proprietor of Danceland ballroom, directly opposite the clinic was an eye witness to the blast.

"I heard a deep rumbling noise," Conklin said, "Glancing at the clinic I saw the roof lift as the explosion tore through."

Instantly doors burst open and nurses and patients fled, screaming from the building. Girls appeared in first and second story windows and jumped to the ground. Pedestrians ran to the building and caught some of them.

Clinic in Confusion
The clinic was the scene of utmost confusion. Flames shot from the windows. Screams rent the air. Faces of frightened men and women appeared at the windows and then were withdrawn as the flames licked at them.

"Twelve bodies were on the roof. The lawn was strewn with others and among them nurses and physicians worked frantically."

"Many of those who died never had a chance for they were helpless in their beds."

X-Ray Room Blast
Nearly 150 persons were in the clinic building at the time of the blast. Many were patients in beds. Some were on operating tables.

The first blast occurred in the X-ray room in the basement of the clinic. It was followed by fire and the two other explosions. The cause was said to be defective wiring in X-ray apparatus which caused inflammable films to ignite, releasing the gas that took its terrible toll.

Several prominent physicians were in the clinic. At least three lost their lives.

MALAY CARS
British Malay had 30,896 motor vehicles in operation at the beginning of this year.

DEATH TAKES VALENTINO DOG

SAN LEANDRO, May 15.—UP—Prince, one of the most famous dogs of Hollywood, has ventured onto the trail of eternity in the hope of finding his master, Rudolph Valentino.

The blueblood of a German shepherd strain died here of a broken heart, although his last days were as pleasant as any dog who has lost his master might wish.

Prince had decided that his long quest for the film star, who died three years ago, was in vain on this earth and settled down in the quietude of Miss Mildred Pacheco's home here.

Why he selected the young woman for companionship instead of returning to the cinema capital where he had hundreds of friends is one of the mysteries that can never be solved.

When Valentino died in New York, Prince was in Hollywood. Almost simultaneously with the death of the noted motion picture "Sheik" the animal left the home of his master and could not be traced.

More than a year later he wandered aimlessly down the main street of his town. He was weak from hunger, his paws were torn and bleeding and his hair was shaggy and unkempt. But a collar purchased for him by Valentino was still around his neck to testify that he was not a common dog.

He hesitated in front of Miss Pacheco's home, which is 500 miles from the mansion of former days, and then trotted to her door. She fed him and tried to cheer him but, although he seemed to appreciate favors and to enjoy life, he never lost his mournful attitude.

Standard Time Sunday. Dr. Eckener expressed the opinion that it might arrive somewhat earlier.

The departure was without incident. The silver craft was freed by the ground crew which had dragged it from the hangar by ropes. It floated majestically up from the field. Dr. Eckener turned its nose into the wind and it moved with increasing speed away to the west as the passengers waved goodbye from the gondola windows.

Woman Aboard
Dr. Eckener's last announcement said he would fly over France towards the mouth of the river Loire. The route would carry the dirigible further north than on its flight to Lakehurst last year. From that point, the commander said he planned to head directly across the bay of Biscay, for the Azores islands.

The plans were subject to change, if the dirigible encountered unfavorable weather.

Mrs. Mary Pierce of New York, was the only woman aboard the Graf Zeppelin. She booked passage a few hours before the dirigible was first scheduled to depart, and later cancelled it. She returned to Friedrichshafen last night and boarded the dirigible with the other passengers.

Desert Song Starts Today

Another has learned that Fontaine is in love with Margot Bonvalet, a beautiful French girl who is visiting General Ribbe, the commandant. The Ribbe are cursing both Fontaine and the girl when they are interrupted by the Red Shadow himself. Then—but you can follow the story better by reading each installment as it appears in the RECORD HERALD.

The first installment of this story which is taking the nation by storm appears today on another page of this issue. You will want to follow it every day. The "Desert Song" is by Virginia Morris and is based upon the story by Otto Harbach, Laurence Schwab, Oscar Hammerstein 2nd and Frank Mandel.

Second Transfusion For Burned Child

The second blood transfusion within 10 days was given Miss Wave Redman, 12, who was badly scalded in the showers at the Roosevelt junior high school early this year. J. O. Redman, the girl's father gave a quantity of his blood for the operation. The transfusion was made by Drs. Glenn and Perkins, specialists, at the Cottage hospital.

SAN PABLO BOY ADMITS SIX ROBBERIES

The boy is said to have led the patrolman a hot chase across lots. Seeking to halt the fleeing lad, Salisbury drew his gun and emptied it in the air. The boy halted immediately, police reported.

Loot Found
According to Salisbury, he discovered a $10 bill, a number of cigars, a leather purse, a knife, two fountain pens, keys a shotgun shell a necklace, taken from the Botiger home, and a pistol stolen from a home here Tuesday night, in the boy's possession.

The boy was taken to the police station where he was questioned by Inspector of Police George Bengley. After a long questioning the lad finally broke down and admitted his guilt, according to police reports.

Stolen Pistol
Police declare that the pistol the boy had in his possession was the one stolen from the home of L. O. Spires, 526 Civic Center street Tuesday night. The boy admitted taking two children's banks from the home and breaking them open police reported.

According to Inspector Bengley the boy appears to have a mania for taking keys and hat in his possession a large number of pass keys and other keys to homes. All entrances, police reported, were effected through use of a pass key.

The boy will be turned over to the juvenile authorities for action, police stated last night.

Started By Stories
Detective stories, in which detailed description of robberies, were given in the solution worked out by the fictitious Hawk-haws taking the youth to first try his hand at burglary he admitted last night.

M. A. Hays, 561 Hayes street, Richmond real estate man was awakened from a sound sleep by policemen last night to be informed that his house had been robbed by the youth. Hays was amazed at the information but identified the loot which the boy said he had taken from the home earlier in the evening. Articles taken from the Hays home included rifle ammunition and a necklace.

Other Robberies
Other places which had been entered according to the youth were:

May 10, the home of O. R. Record, 979 Thirty-sixth street, where a purse containing $4.90, part of a church fund was taken.

May 13, H. Vartman home, 2911 Downer avenue. A rings, small savings bank and a pencil were taken here.

May 14, L. O. Spires residence, 526 Civic center, where the pistol, about $3 in small change from two banks, a magnifying glass, two flash lights, compass and rifle cartridges.

May 15, J. Masini home, ransacked. Nothing was taken from this house.

Attempts were also made last night to enter the homes of Oleta Summers, 623 Thirty-third street and A. B. Schomom, 561 Thirty-third street, the youth admitted.

RESOLUTION TO SCHOOL BOARD AID S. P. IN FIGHT WILL FACE COURT

That Richmond, through its chamber of commerce and its council is backing the Southern Pacific railroad in its fight with the Great Northern Railroad company and Western Pacific Railroad company in proposed extensions is indicated by the resolutions recently adopted by both the city organizations.

The resolution which was adopted by the city council Monday night and forwarded to interested parties follows:

Resolution No. 2061
Whereas, the city of Richmond has embarked upon an industrial development program to bring to reality the opportunities which have heretofore been lying partially developed and

Whereas the council of the City of Richmond, responsible for the completion of the present plans, recognizes the necessity for the maintenance of the existing systems of transportation at the highest state of efficiency; and

Whereas, this efficiency cannot be maintained if application of existing lines rendering satisfactory service is permitted; and

Whereas the Interstate Commerce act specifically declares it to be a national policy that no new railroad construction shall be permitted until public "convenience and necessity" shall have been affirmatively shown; and

Whereas the Great Northern Railroad company and Western Pacific Railroad propose to construct a line of railroad in northeastern California which would neither establish a new through route for traffic nor result in improved service, nor operate otherwise than to place an additional burden on the railroad capital structure;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Council of the city of Richmond that this council does hereby approve the position of the Southern Pacific company in opposition to the proposed application, which seeks unnecessary duplication of existing adequate facilities, and which would result primarily in the diversion of traffic from the existing lines without any benefits resulting from such diversion; and

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Interstate Commerce Commission as a statement of the position of the council of the City of Richmond, and to the Great Northern, Western Pacific, and Southern Pacific railroad companies.

I hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was duly passed and adopted by the Council of the City of Richmond at a regular meeting thereof held on the 13th day of May, 1929, by the following vote:

Ayes: Councilmen Scott, Hinkley, Fenner, Paulsen, Martin, Black, Hartnett and Chandler.

Noes: None.

Absent: Councilman Collins.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the corporate seal of the city of Richmond this 14th day of May, 1929.

A. C. Faris,

Clerk of the City of Richmond.

(SEAL)

Approved: M. A. Chandler, mayor.

Certified as a true copy

Clerk of the city of Richmond, Calif.

—RAGS WANTED—RECORD-HERALD

LONG BEACH, Calif., May 15.—UP—The Long Beach school board refused today to reinstate seven suspended Gamma Gamma sorority girls as ordered in a superior court writ of mandamus and elected to force a legal fight.

The seven girls, together with three others and two boys were ousted, when the severe paddling for Margaret Lindsay during a sorority initiation caused the board to move against all sororities and fraternities as secret organizations. Mrs. Lindsay was among those suspended.

The board based its action today on the contention that its action in expelling the students was justified by their membership in an asserted illegal society and on a desire to establish a precedent.

An alternate writ was also issued by Superior Judge Perry Hight. It required that the board appear in court Monday to show cause why the students should not be reinstated if the court order today was ignored.

Deputy County Counsel W. B. McKerson is preparing the school board's defense for the court appearance Monday.

The seven girls appealing are: Leonora De Coudres, Louise Quinn, Mary Jane Melsenheimer, Mable E. Eining, Mildred Dial, Dorothy Williams and Ruby Chetle.

Man Held On 1923 Charges

Wanted since 1923 on a charge of embezzlement, Sylvester J. Jones, of Oakland, is in the city jail awaiting hearing. Jones was arrested in Oakland yesterday by the Richmond police.

According to police reports, Jones took a car, owned by C. C. Kratzer, local automobile dealer, out of the state in 1923. Jones had been missing since that time but recently appeared in Oakland where he was apprehended.
